

Since 2005, Mark Seitz has served as the President & CEO of NDC, Inc. – a leading provider of healthcare supply chain solutions, both upstream and downstream. Mark received his Doctorate of Juris Prudence from Tulane University in 1985. A former Assistant Attorney General for the state of Tennessee, Mark leverages more than 20 years experience practicing healthcare law and serving as a partner in a large regional law firm. A 2016 John Saseen Leadership award winner, Mark has served as a member of the Health Industry Distributors Association (HIDA) Board of Directors for the past 13 years. NDC's corporate headquarters are located in Nashville, Tennessee. Mark resides in Franklin, Tennessee and enjoys spending time with his two daughters.